

ART TALK @

ESMoA

May 07, 2017

2:00pm to 4:00pm

What is the future of public art and architecture in Los Angeles?

Join ESMoA and a panel of artists, architects and arts professionals for a discussion about the future of public art and architecture in the creative capital of the world, Los Angeles! Esteemed panelists draw inspiration from their professional practice and select artwork in Experience 27: ELSEGUNDISSIMO as they envision how art will take shape in the city and county of Los Angeles for years to come.

PANELISTS:

Herwig Baumgartner, Architect and Co-founder of B+U Architecture

Ligeia Gorre, City of Los Angeles, Department of Cultural Affairs, Public Percent for Art Program and Airport Art Program Art Manager

Alan Nakagawa, Interdisciplinary Artist and Creative Catalyst Artist in Residence

Scott Uriu, Architect and Co-Founder of B+U Architecture

Lida Venieri, Los Angeles County Arts Commission Civic Art Program Coordinator

MODERATOR:

Nathalie Sanchez, Education Specialist, ESMoA
